Everybody is invited to attend the is a good talker, and will entertain the audience and give them some solid facts to think over.

room of the opera house next Friday night, October 30th. Everybody is in-

Wm. Relf, west of the B & M. and M.

maha, where Geo. B. Skeen is now living.

O. A. Corbin made one of the best speeches of the campaign Monday night at the Nemaha McKinley club room.
The large room was full and the patriotic speech of Mr. Corbin was frequently and enthusiastically applauded. The speech was a good one in every respect.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed E. Sanders and two children, of Whiting, Kansas, arrived in Nemaha Saturday evening, and visited with Mr. Sanders' brother, the ed-ing. They drove through.

made a visit to Nemaha Friday of this week. She informs us that she had a good business, and has made arrangements to return in about six weeks, notice of which will be given later. Miss Tourtelott is a thorough optician, and has given good satisfaction to all who have bought glasses of her.

A CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to return thanks to the neighbors and friends at Brownville and Nemaha who were so kind and attentive during the long sickness and death and burial of my wife. Their kindness and sympathy will ever be gratefully remembered.

W. H. BROOKOVER.

The Methodist church at Nemaha is making improvements right along.
The latest is stained glass windows—or rather imitation of stained glass, made by putting on a patent paper made for this purpose. It adds very much to the beauty of the church, and yet is comparatively inexpensive. The Junior League pays for this improvement.

Every neighbor of Seymour Howe gives him credit for being a good citizen, an honest man, intelligent, upright, and qualified in all respects to make a good member of the legislature. He will be careful while in the legislature to at all times work and vote for the best interests of his constituents. He will not be swerved from doing what he judges to be the right course to per-sue. Vote for him.

A bad accident occurred Thursday night. Mrs. Emanuel Zegafuse and her mother, Mrs. Ames, were driving across the Nemaha bridge west of Geo.
Kettell's, when the horses became frightened at some timbers lying near the end of the bridge, and backed off side of the bridge where there was a broken railing, falling ten or twelve feet. Mrs. Zegafuse was not seriously hurt, but her mother was badly injured—how bad it is hard to tell, as she is injured internally.

WOOD AND CORN.

We wish all our delinquent subscribers who can furnish us wood or corn would bring the same in at once, as we need it. Either old or new corn will be taken.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding.
Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.

Remember the big Republican Rally at Nema- ha next Friday night, Oct. 30. Big parade and music by Band and Glee Club.

Geo. W. Cornell and John Simpson came to Nemaha last Saturday night to instruct our people how to vote. Mr.
Simpson's speech was greeted with respectful attention, and so was the first part of Mr. Cornell's talk, but when he called by name republican members of his audience and asked what they thought of the assertions he had made, the talk soon developed into a running debate, and as each side would make a point the sympathizers of that side would cheer, and then each side seemed to try to see which could yell the loudest and longest. As the McKinley boys evidently had the best lungs, they appeared to make the most noise and to hold out the longest, which "riled" many of our populist friends, and they threaten vengeance.

Republican Meetings.

The candidates on the republican county ticket will hold meetings at the following places and times:

Peru, Monday night, Oct. 26th.
Benton, Tuesday, Oct. 27th.
Howe, Wednesday, Oct. 28th.
Walnut Grove school house, Peru precinct, Thursday, October 29th.
NEMAHA, Friday, Oct. 30th.
Auburn, Monday, Nov. 2nd.

These meetings will begin at 7:30 p. m. Local committeemen are requested to take charge and see that everything is in readiness.

B. H. BAILEY, Chairman.
W. P. FREEMAN, secretary.

G. W. Cornell's speech Saturday evening was a fair sample of the democratic speeches of this campaign. It was made up of wild assertions but no convincing arguments. He called England a pauper country, made so by the gold standard. England is the wealthiest country on the face of the globe, and statistics prove that in no country of Europe is the wealth more evenly distributed than it is in England. The democratic party has such a grudge against every one that loans money that they even hate England because it loaned the United States money to carry on the war against the rebellion.

Mr. Cornell tried to tell a true story about two men that live in this precinct. He told what he learned from one of the parties that went to him for legal advice, or in other words to find out how to avoid paying a note given for borrowed money. Mr. Cornell evidently wanted to prove by this piece of a story that if a man borrowed money of his neighbor, he (the borrower) should compel the lender to take corn in the field for his pay, as the corn was so cheap that the borrower could not afford to gather it.

Mr. Cornell's great hobby appeared to be, "Pay the bonds and all indebtedness, both public and private, with cheaper money." Yet he had the gall to stand up before an intelligent Nemaha audience and say that he was not a repudiator; that he believed in paying honest debts. LISTENER.

C. Shuck, proprietor of the Nemaha Valley Berkshire farm, won the following premiums on his hogs at the Auburn and Verdon fairs:

At Auburn he got first premium on boar, sweepstakes over everything on boar, and sweepstakes over everything on sow and pigs.

At Verdon Mr. Shuck got first premium on boar, sweepstakes over everything on sow and pigs, first premium on yearling sow, second premium on sow, first premium on boar, first premium on pig seven months old, second premium on pig five months old, and second premium on boar pig.

As Mr. Shuck had but few hogs on exhibition the showing is a remarkably good one.

Since 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dysentery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as Asiatic cholera.
Heretofore the best efforts of the most skilled physicians have failed to check its ravages, this remedy, however, has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions, which proves it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by Taylor's druggist.
